

PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, Oct. 26.—Potatoes shipped report an unwillingness on the part of growers to part with fancy stocks. Considerable inquiry from San Francisco within the past week has made quotations firmer, and, as usual in such cases, growers prefer to await until better offers.

"Large quantities of inferior potatoes are being offered," one firm reported today, "but these can only be disposed of in the local market, so are weak in price. There are plenty of inferior potatoes in adjoining states, and no potatoes are wanted except first-class Oregon Burbanks or other brands of equal quality. Potatoes, to be first-class, must be grown on sandy soil, so that only favored localities can produce such."

Portland sugar brokers attach little importance to the opening up of the Crockett refinery, in California, and do not believe that the Western Refinery people have been shut out of the Hawaiian Islands, so far as supplies of "raws" are concerned. The Crockett refinery is at the head of San Francisco Bay, and for several years was used in refining cane sugar, but those in control found the city of San Francisco more convenient for their purpose.

"The interests of the Western Refinery in the Hawaiian Islands are too heavy to be shut out by a rival concern," said a representative of Kelley-Clark Company today, "and even should some raw sugar be brought from Java, the price of sugar on the coast would not be affected."

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Grover, 101 N. Main street, Ottawa, Kas., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Frank Hart, druggist.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Texas writes July 19, 1899: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pains. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Frank Hart, druggist.

HE RECOVERS MONEY FOR TIME LOST IN COURTING

Canadian Court of Review Awards Damages to Youth Who Wooed and Lost.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 26.—The Court of Review in Montreal yesterday handed down a decision awarding damages to a plaintiff who sued the father of his former fiancée for the time he spent in courtship and for the value of his gifts to her.

The trial judge found against the plaintiff in the suit of C. Jerome Internoscia to recover damages from Signor Benhill, because the latter's minor daughter had broken her engagement to marry him. Internoscia's statement of the claim, filed about a year ago, attracted a great deal of attention, he having itemized charges for postage stamps, bananas, church collections, wearing apparel, and, being a lawyer, for $2 for each hour spent in the young lady's company.

The Court of Review, consisting of Judges Sir Melbourne Tait, Lorranger and Doherty, found that Internoscia was within his rights in demanding reimbursement for his expenditures from the father of the young lady, because the father had induced his daughter to break off her engagement.

The parties involved in this extraordinary suit are well known in Eastern society circles. Internoscia married another girl shortly after his suit began.
